

Rattlesden Airfield Historic Photos

A B17 bomber crash lands next to the control tower (now clubhouse)

On this 7th day of Aug. nineteen hundred and forty four, the fickle finger of fate finds it expedient to trace on the roll of

the LUCKY BASTARDS CLUB

The Name of

Phillip C. Zanoza
Pilot on the Flying fortress Scheherzade

for having this day achieved the remarkable record of sallying forth and returning no less than thirty times, for having braved the hazards of Hun flak for bringing to Hitler and his cronies tons of bombs, for bending the Luftwaffe's back; all through the courtesy of the VIII AAF who sponsors these programs in the interest of liberty loving people everywhere.

Walter Haining Coe
COMMANDING OFFICER

Alf Jumper
AIR ATTACHE

447

SQUADRON C.O.

SQUADRON CHIEF

CAME

